HERZOG SEES FARCE FROM A FIELD BOX

Merkle Recovers Batting Eye and Knocks Out Homer and Triple.

By HEYWOOD BROUN.

In the seventh inning of the encounter between the Reds and the Giants at the Polo Grounds yesterday somebody shouted: "Bring back the Yankees!" It was that sort of a game. New York won by a score of 8 to 1, but gained no ground on the Braves, who defeated the Cardinals.

The Reds, who have not even a city series in prospect, were more lifeless than the Giants. "Red" Ames was found for five runs in the first inning, and thereafter the game was safe, even though Al Demaree was the moundman for New York! One encouraging feature was a return to batting form by Fred Merkle, who made a home run into the left field bleachers and a triple to deep right centre.

Charlie Herzog had no more than a spectator's view of the game, for he is laboring under a suspension, and watched the proceedings from a field box. Several times his lieutenants came close to consult with him, but nothing much except pinch hitters and ne-pitchers came of their deliberations.

Not even the "Staats Zeitung" could accuse Herzog of racial bias. It is true that he removed Von Kolnitz early in the game, but he put Nichoff in his

the game, but he put Nichoff in his place.

"Deutschland Uber Allies" is the motto of the Herzogian host, but in spite of the marked preponderance of Teutons an attempt has been made to preserve the balance of power. Thus Gonzales, a Cuban, and Glockson, a Pole, shared the catching, while one of the outfield posts was held by Yingling, a reformed Brooklyn pitcher. Perhaps the melting pot has not yet had tim to assimilate these strains. At any rate, there was little unanimity about the play of the Reds yesterday. But the best plays of the game were made in the grandstand, where the rooters worked the old hide-the-ball trick on the special policemen not once but a dozen times.

"Red" Ames has puzzled the Giants many times this season, but he was not effective yesterday, nor was his support. Snodgrass walked in the first inning, and Larry Doyle forced him from port. Snodgrass walked in the first inning, and Larry Doyle forced him from Berghammer to Groh. Burns tapped to Ames for what should have been another force-out, but Groh neglected to touch second base, and both runners were safe.

Artie Fletcher hit a low flying triple to left centre, driving two runs home. Robertson hit to Kellogg, who threw to the plate too late to catch Fletcher And that was the third run. Robertson stole second just as Grant struck out, and then Fred Merkle lifted the ball into the left field stand for his home run. That was five.

Heinie Zimmerman is at it again. Boston, Sept. 16.-Johnny Evers is onvinced that the fans of Boston are the best pinch hitters in the world. This afternoon was set aside as Evers Day, in honor of the captain of the Braves. The score was a tie when the eighth inning opened, but at this stage of the battle the Braves began to bat and drove three runs across the plate. The Boston team fielded brilliantly, particularly Johnny Evers, who handled leven chances without an error. He also started the rally in the eighth, when he beat out an infield hit. His playing was timely, for the afternoon had been set apart as Evers day. The fans presented a chest of silver to the
